

SAGE & THYME® UK 2019

8th Annual Study Day for SAGE & THYME facilitators and organisers

Wednesday 27 November 2019, 9:30am - 4:00pm

Lecture Theatre 2, ERC, Wythenshawe Hospital, Manchester, M23 9LT

It is highly recommended that at least one SAGE & THYME facilitator on each licence attends this event

Learning objectives:

- Recent updates to SAGE & THYME training
- How to sell, introduce and promote SAGE & THYME in resistant organisations
- Handling challenging learners and how facilitator behaviour affects learner behaviour
- Understand how others have successfully delivered SAGE & THYME

Time	Session
Chair – Rachel Koutsavakis
09:30-09:55	Registration
09:55-10:00	Welcome – Vicky Sharples, Head of Nursing, Manchester University NHS Foundation Trust
10:00-10:30	General update - Mike Connolly, Lead Trainer, SAGE & THYME Team
10:50-11:10	How to sell, introduce and promote SAGE & THYME in resistant organisations – Dr Joanne Thomas, Business Lead, SAGE & THYME Team
11:10-11:30	BREAK – TEA AND COFFEE
11:30-11:50	Why learners can be challenging - Mike Connolly, Lead Trainer, SAGE & THYME Team
11:50-12:10	Teaching medical students and University staff SAGE & THYME – Dr Sarah Shepherd, Lecturer, The University of Manchester
12:10-12:30	Experience of delivering SAGE & THYME to pre-registration nurses – Lynn McCullagh, Senior Lecturer, London South Bank University
12:30-13:30	LUNCH and NETWORKING
13:30-14:30	Interactive discussion: How facilitator behaviour affects learner behaviour – two parallel sessions – SATFAC trainers
14:30-15:00	BREAK – TEA AND COFFEE
15:00-15:25	Launch of new films – Mike Connolly, Lead Trainer, SAGE & THYME Team
15:25-15:45	Question and answer session/general discussion
15:45-16:00	Evaluation and close